

.....

SUSTAINABLE GUIDE

A small guide to a sustainable stay in Denmark

.....

Made by State of Green, inspired by Wonderful Copenhagen

Go Green Denmark has a general well updated guide to a sustainable stay in Denmark. This can be a good starting point for inspiration.

GREEN FOOD

Choose restaurants that use organic and/or local produce. Avoiding meat (especially beef) can dramatically cut the carbon emissions from your diet. Bring a refillable water bottle instead of buying bottled water.

- List of restaurants that use organic produce in Copenhagen
- Sustainable food in Aarhus
- List of vegetarian/vegan friendly restaurants in Copenhagen, Odense

GREEN HOTELS

Choose a hotel with an environmental certification. This is easy in Denmark, where the majority of all rooms are certified.

- Overview over Green key certified hotels
- List of hotels certified by Nordic Swan/EU ecolabel \(in danish\)
- List of Green Globe certified hotels

GREEN TRANSPORTATION

Use pedal power like a true local or the well-connected public transportation system.

- List of bicycle rentals, Copenhagen, Aarhus, Odense
- Read about the Copenhagen card and Aarhus Card
- General info on the public transportation, Copenhagen, Aarhus, Odense

GREEN SHOPPING

Shopping recycled and locally produced items is the way to go for the sustainable shopper. You can also find a lot of great, stylish second-hand stores and flea markets in Denmark.

- List of second-hand stores in Copenhagen
- Flea markets in Odense and Aarhus

GREEN ATTRACTIONS

Denmark is home to hundreds of green, sustainable activities and sight seeings.

- A guide to 100 green places in Copenhagen
- Beautiful nature in Aarhus and Odense