

Newsletter conditions

The following conditions apply when signing up for the State of Green newsletter. State of Green reserves the right to send e-mails, newsletters, and other marketing materials, such as invitations to events, to the e-mail given.

The given contact details will be stored in the online State of Green CRM-system, and we reserve the right to use this data to contact you regarding the website and State of Green's other services. State of Green's processing of such information is comprised by and will be carried out in accordance with the law on processing of personal data.

You may withdraw your consent to receive e-mails or be contacted by us at any time. When you receive inquiries from us, you will find the unsubscribe link at the bottom of the newsletter. You can also withdraw your consent via this link.

Any disputes concerning the interpretation of the terms and conditions contained herewith shall be settled in accordance with the laws of Denmark.

In case of doubt, please contact the State of Green secretariat, who can help determine each case. The secretariat can be reached via email at info@stateofgreen.com.